1	Nature of the tasks:
The successful candidate will work as a case handler in the Unit D1 that is responsible for antitrust in the payments sector. Given the economic and strategic importance of the financial services sector in the current climate, the work of the Unit is challenging and very dynamic. The range of tasks covers antitrust case-handling and horizontal files: a particular emphasis is the review of Regulation (EU) 2015/751 on Interchange Fees in 2019-2020. Frequent contacts with market participants, national competition authorities, national regulatory authorities and other Commission services will be part of the function. The tasks also include the organisation and conduct of market investigations, and the gathering and analysis of market data. DG COMP is looking for lawyers, economists or candidates with a background in competition or in banking and payments sectors. A very good command of English is required, other languages are an asset. The successful candidate will enjoy a highly-motivated and effective working environment in a good working atmosphere.

Version 2018-02

2	Main qualifications:

a) Eligibility criteria

The following eligibility criteria are to be fulfilled by the candidate in order to be seconded to the Commission. Consequently, the candidate who does not fulfil one of them will be automatically eliminated from the selection process.

- Professional experience : at least three years' experience in administrative, legal, scientific, technical, advisory or supervisory functions which can be regarded as equivalent to those of function groups AD;
- Seniority : at least one year by your employer, that is having worked for an eligible employer (as described in Art. 1 of the SNE decision) on a permanent or contract basis for at least 12 months before the secondment;
- Linguistic skills: thorough knowledge of one of the EU languages and a satisfactory knowledge of another EU language to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties. An SNE from a non-member country must produce evidence of a thorough knowledge of one EU language necessary for the performance of his duties.

b) Selection criteria

Diploma:

- university degree or
- professional training or professional experience of an equivalent level in the field(s) Law, economics, or banking and payments sectors. Knowledge of competition law is an advantage

Professional experience: Background and relevant professional experience in law, economics or banking and payments sectors. Good analytical and drafting skills, ability to communicate, to work independently as well as in a team under time constraints and pressure.

Language(s) necessary for the performance of duties: English is the main working language, so very good writing and oral skills in English are required. Knowledge of French or German and/or other languages is an advantage

3	Submission of applications and selection procedure
----------	---

Candidates should send their application according to the Europass CV format (<http://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/en/documents/curriculum-vitae>) in English, French or German only to the Permanent Representation / Diplomatic Mission to the EU of their country, which will forward the applications to the competent services of the Commission within the deadline fixed by the latter. Not respecting this procedure or deadlines will automatically invalidate the application.

Candidates are required not to add other documents (such as copy of passport, copy of degrees or certificate of professional experience, etc). If necessary, these will be requested at a later stage.

Candidates will be informed of the follow-up of their application by the unit concerned.

4 Conditions of the secondment

The secondment will be governed by the Commission Decision C(2008)6866 of 12/11/2008 laying down rules on the secondment to the Commission of national experts and national experts in professional training (SNE Decision). This decision is available on http://ec.europa.eu/civil_service/job/sne/index_en.htm.

The SNE will remain employed and remunerated by his/her employer during the secondment. He/she will equally remain covered by the national social security.

Unless for cost-free SNEs, allowances may be granted by the Commission to SNEs fulfilling the conditions provided for in Art. 17 of the SNE decision.

During the secondment, SNEs are subject to confidentiality, loyalty and absence of conflict of interest obligations, as provided for in Art. 6 and 7 of the SNE Decision.

If any document is inexact, incomplete or missing, the secondment may be cancelled.

5 Processing of personal data

The selection, secondment and termination of the secondment of a national expert requires the Commission (the competent services of DG HR, DG BUDG, PMO and the DG concerned) to process personal data concerning the person to be seconded, under the responsibility of the Head of Unit of DG HR.B4. The data processing is subject to the SNE Decision as well as the Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data.

Data is kept by the competent services for 10 years after the secondment (2 years for not selected or not seconded experts).

Data subjects may exercise their right of access to data concerning them and the right to rectify such data by applying to the controller, in accordance with Article 17 of the Regulation on the processing of personal data. The candidate may send complaints to the European Data Protection Supervisor edps@edps.europa.eu.

To the attention of candidates from third countries: your personal data can be used for necessary checks.
